People and Pleasant Events

Wedding of Miss Clara Moore and Mr. Hume Ogilvie Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Moore announce today the approaching marriage of their daughter, Clara to Mr. Alpheus Hume Ogilvie on Thursday, June the 29th. The invitations will be out this week.

The wedding will take place at 8:30 o'clock in the evening at the Trimble street Methodist church. Bishop H. C. Morrison, of New Orleans, an uncle of the bride, will perform the ceremony. The ushers are Mr. Reb Fairbanks, of Benton, Ill.; Mr. Henry Moore, Mr. Richard Scott, Mr. Oscar Hank, Mr. Eugene Graves, Mr. Robert Morrison. The bride will enter the church with her brother, Mr. Frank Moore, and the best man is Mr. Clarence Milam. Mrs. Ben Billings will play the wedding march. The bride will wear white organdie over silk.

Miss Moore is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Moore, of North Eighth street and is a young lady of much charm of personality and character. For several years she has held a leading place as teacher in the Paducah public schools. Strikingly handsome and of gracious manners and sweet disposition she has endeared herself to a host of friends.

Mr. Ogilvie is the youngest son of the late Senator John W. Ogilvie, and is a brother of Mr. Lemuel B. Ogilvie of the city. He is one of the rising young men of the county, and has a large farm near the city. For some years he lived in Paducah and is well known here and very popular, having the power of making friends readily.

The announcement of the marriage will hardly come as a surprise to the many friends of the young couple as it closes a courtship of several years, but they will have a host of good wishes and congratulations, for they are well-known throughout the city and county. They will go immediately to housekeeping at the groom's country home, Woodland Place in Arcadia.

Afternoon Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Cora Mae Trafford to Mr. J. B. Austin was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wilkins on West Clay street. Rev. W. H. Pinkerton, of the First Christian church performed the ceremony.

It was a pretty home wedding, with a few guests present. The bride wore a pretty gown of white silk mull. She is the daughter of the late J. R. Trafford, and is an attractive young lady. The groom resides in Blandville and is a popular man.

The couple will make their home in Blandville.
